Good morning Chris

I just found this in AOL spam folder from Ron.

Are IHGS on the exchange journals list? If so it seems we should put them on the electronic listing.

Thanks

Paul

Hello,

Thank you for sending us the recent issue of your journal.

Due to storage space, we will no longer be able to receive printed copies of journals, and we wondered whether it would be possible to receive our copies electronically?

If you are happy to send us a copy by email in the future, please could it be sent to me at this email address?

If your journal is only available in print form, we will unfortunately have to cancel, but we will still be happy to send you copies of our journal by email.
